The Department of Education (DepEd) has recently launched its new advocacy entitled Edukalidad. As advocated by the specialists in the educational agency, Edukalidad is now being disseminated to the entire country in order to better serve the nation’s educational clientele…the 21st century learners.

In the speech delivered by Secretary Leonor M. Briones, she highlighted Sulong Edukalidad advocacy which is to realize the provision of the government to provide free education to the Filipino people.

This is one of the great actions of DepEd to the assurance of quality education and to further raise our country in various proficiency assessments in the subjects such as Science, English and Mathematics in participation in the Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) of the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)

Edukalidad that is a wonderful alternate to face the challenges of the 21st century is being raised through the realization of its four pillars namely curriculum, learning environment, teacher’s upskilling and reskilling, and engagement of stakeholders.

In the pillar of curriculum, DepEd may determine the implementation of the K to 12 Program in the diverse schools in the land. Excellency in demonstrating and delivering of appropriate lessons to the learners can be pursued.
The learning environment is another pillar to be strengthened in the field of education. The schools through the leadership of principals and teachers should ensure a safe and conducive learning environment for the students in all levels.

The teachers being the primary focus of the Human Resource Development in the school must be trained very well in order to produce quality of instructions in the different learning areas in the school. Therefore, as being committed and dedicated teachers, their duties and responsibilities ought to be nicely understood by way of them.

The engagement of stakeholders and of the entire school community should be emphasized. The achievement of every school may also depend on the support of the stakeholders and or all the reputable establishments in the community.

The Sulong Edukalidad of the Department of Education (DepEd) is such a milestone that everyone should note. It is one of the best ways of coping with the concerns in every school and it is the way to raise the quality of graduates that we may have in the future.
