ABORTION
By: Mary Jane Libres

Abortion is a medical procedure used to end a pregnancy by removing a fetus or embryo that can cause death of the fetus while unplanned abortion is known as miscarriage. Induced abortion is an abortion cause purposely. Poverty is one of the reasons why the woman undergo abortion. When abortion is perform legally, induced abortion do not increase long term mental or physical problem. Abortion according to law they use modern methods/ medications or surgery for abortions.

According to Article II 1987 Philippine Constitution section 12. The state recognizes sanctity of family life and shall protect and strengthen the family as a basic autonomous social institution. It shall equally protect the life of mother and the life of the unborn from conception.

Abortion is criminalized by the Philippine Law, according to articles 256,258,259 of the revise Penal code of the Philippines mandate imprisonment of women who undergo abortion, as well as any person who assist the procedure. Article 258 further imposes a higher prison term for the woman or her parents if the abortion is done in order to conceal the woman’s dishonor. There is no law in the Philippines that authorizes abortion in order to save woman’s life.

In 2004 National survey showed 90% undergo abortion are Catholic, although it is against the teachings of the Catholic Church.

In cases Ectopic pregnancy is the development of fertilized egg elsewhere than in the uterus (as in a fallopian tube or the peritoneal cavity, surgery is the way of woman’s life. Abortion is dangerous because it van trigger the woman’s life to fetal death, spontaneous death, self induced abortion, abortion due to trauma from intimate partner violence. As a consequence woman end up dying because in case of emergency they do not ask for medical care and they also delay going to hospitals.
Everyone has the right to life and no one has the power to end the life of the unborn child because it is a mortal sin to God. God give us child to nurture and to protect them, No matter what reason we must give the child to see the beauty of the World.
