ADVANTAGES OF POSITIVE DISCIPLINE

by:
Ramil S. Gigante
Teacher III Orani National High School - Main

One excellent example of unorthodox way of managing the learners is through positive discipline. Positive discipline is highly regarded as a prominent approach in order to manage the class with kindness and compassion.

Positive discipline is an effective method on how the teachers or parents may manage the behaviors and attitudes of the children. This is a new way of rearing the young people and also providing them with good moral ways and values.

Citing the advantages of positive discipline is worth-doing and teachers as well as students may readily perceive its benefits.

Positive discipline is a kind of technique in implementing discipline among the students but at the same time it showing firmness of the right things to do. This shows that positive discipline is a caring and sympathetic approach wherein the students may easily and heartily follow.

This kind of discipline makes the students feel that they belong and that they are important. Positive discipline promotes inclusivity and self-worth for it treats the children with much compassion and dignity. This is advantageous for the students realize that they are in the group and they have significant roles to play.

Another distinguishing point in positive discipline is that its effectiveness is long-term. The effects of this kind of discipline are lasting for this kind of approach touches the hearts and minds of the students. This also leads the students in acquiring ideal values and ways.
Positive discipline instructs the students to possess social and life skill contributing to a good or even a better character. This means that each student is being transformed into a better human being. This also promotes a superlative character for each of them.

Discovering one’s capabilities and skills is possible through positive discipline. The student is able to be at his or her best because the people around are encouraging and guiding him or her with care, love and compassion.

From the given ideas, it is apparent that positive discipline is recommendable and it is beneficial most especially on the part of each student. This valuable method of discipline should be employed for the welfare of the students.

References:

What is Positive Discipline and what techniques do you use to employ it?
https://www.goodhousekeeping.com/life/parenting/a26754534/positive-discipline/