APPLYING WALK THE TALK NOTION

by:
Sylvia B. Atanacio
Master Teacher II, Orani North Elementary School

In this fast-changing world, a teacher still needs to be the role model of the youth and one way of doing it is to apply the Walk the Talk idea.

To continue being a role model in the society, a teacher may display actions which may project the professionalism of a teacher, doing what is being said.

Whenever a teacher states a goal, that goal should be accomplished. Be a person of action and someone who does things for a certain direction in the teaching profession.

Be a teacher of autonomy. This means that a teacher should have independence in doing what is right. Projecting certain methods and styles in teaching would be great. Be a teacher of freedom of doing what is right.

Applying the skills in teaching is a good indication of Walk the Talk. This just shows that the teacher is doing what are in his or her mind.

Be a good example to everyone manifesting what you say is a good picture of this idea. You do what you say and you demonstrate the values and principles that you express.

A teacher may have the Walk the Talk in terms of discipline. Whenever you teach proper conduct to your learners you also have to do the same in your personal life. That is being exemplary to others.

Whenever you deal with others as a teacher. You also have to show pleasantries because you always teach your students to do the same.
Apply Walk the Talk idea for it will surely help you gain respect from others, more than that, people may tend to admire you as a good teacher.

References: