BE AN INSPIRATIONAL TEACHER

by:
Gregorio B. Castro
Master Teacher I, Bonifacio Camacho National High School

Annually, the Teacher’s Day Celebration is being observed in the Philippines. This is to give due honors to our beloved teacher who exerted great patience and strong dedication in the practice of the profession. The teachers are truly influencing and inspiring the students for the better.

It is now time to describe the characteristics of an inspirational teacher.

An inspirational teacher does work with excellence. An inspirational teacher does his/her work excellently. He/she has quality in performing the teaching tasks and responsibilities. He/she strives to achieve for superb output and performance on the part of each student.

An inspirational teacher cares so much for the students. The teacher considers the students as the most important individuals in the educational system. Through this, whatever he/she does is for the benefit of the students and not for him/her alone.

An inspirational teacher lives a moral life. It is very admirable that a teacher manifests good deeds and actions in his/her life. In this way he/she inspires others by setting a good example in in realizing the principle of walk you talk in the teaching profession.

An inspirational hones the person’s ability and talent. An inspirational teacher is after for enhancing the abilities and talents of others particularly of the students. It is inspiring to see altruistic teachers whose concern is to train the students to be the best in their respective skills.
An inspirational teacher cares for fellow teachers. A teacher is extending help and friendship to other teachers. It is truly remarkable that despite of the busy schedule he/she has in school, assisting others who may be in need of help is truly meaningful and worthy.

An inspirational teacher builds camaraderie with stakeholders. A teacher has also deep concern for the external stakeholders for they are also included in the entire school community. Establishing harmony and friendship with them is truly satisfying and inspiring.

An inspirational teacher promotes strong faith in God. A teacher has to be spiritually healthy for it shows his/her good relationship with the Lord. It is so inspiring to see teachers who bring the students and other people closer to God.

An inspirational teacher has a vision for others. Having a dream for others is truly admirable. A teacher who is inspiring always cares for the betterment and welfare of others.

The teachers should relive these qualities for them to become inspiring in their own right.

References:

Vision for Professional Learning from https://www.k12pl.nl.ca/menu/vision-for-professional-learning.html