In place of the usual seminar is the webinar. In line with the current pandemic situation is the new set-up in teachers’ school training which is very popular nowadays.

The following are the advantages of webinars to school administrators, teachers and other school personnel.

Webinar is an economical tool. Since webinars are being offered to us for free this would be advantageous on our part. Moreover, we do not need to spend an amount for transportation and other expenses just to reach the seminar destination.

Webinar is accessible. Through the effort of our fingers, webinar would be accessible. Further, because of the Internet connectivity, webinars are easily opened and followed for us to learn.

Webinar is convenient. We would be able to watch and listen to webinars in the comfort of our respective homes. Travelling and other physical preparations and efforts are no longer required because we access webinar via Internet.

Webinar is interactive. Another distinguishing feature of webinar is that it allows us to participate virtually and electronically. There are times that participations are allowed to raise questions and voice out their views. There are also activities for outputs.

Webinar is effective. The fact that you are watching and listening at a webinar is already learning. Webinar has a big impact on every participant for it is indeed informative and educational.
Webinar is easy to watch. This means that by using a cellular phone or any available electronic gadget, webinar may be easily availed and watched. Webinars are watched wherever you are.

Webinar is safe. At the comfort of home webinar is easily accessed. Further, this would be safe from the participants because this time of pandemic they do not need to go outside to attend seminars.

Webinar is flexible. Its flexibility is evident for it accommodates the needs and safety of people. The webinar may also be recorded and be availed by the participants at their chosen time.

At this present time, webinar is the best means to learn and relearn. As we are able to attend the seminars virtually and this would be advantageous to us to grow further professionally.
