COMMITMENT IN WORK

by:
Mark Anthony C. Bautista
Teacher III, Sabatan Elementary School

Commitment is one ideal attribute that every teacher should uphold in work. It is an essential component that contributes to the success of every organization just like the school. A teacher manifests commitment in work in the succeeding ways:

A teacher who has commitment is attending to the needs of the learners. The teacher regards the student with great importance. Being the center of the educative process, the learner is being prioritized by the committed teacher. Thus, this teacher is truly dedicated in serving the youth.

Commitment is seen in a teacher who is very responsible in work. This teacher exemplifies hard work and perseverance in doing the duties and responsibilities of teacher. This kind of teacher exudes the eagerness to work at best for the sake of the educational clientele.

A teacher who is committed in work spends time in other related works in the school. There are other assignments being designated to teachers beyond the teaching tasks. A committed teacher welcome these additional responsibilities with open heart.

Committed teachers spend extra time and effort in serving the school. There are times that the school requires the teacher to spend more time in various activities and undertakings, a committed teacher pleasantly accepts the call and willingly extends beyond work hours just to give service to the school.

A teacher who is committed has the will to collaborate and cooperate with peers in achieving educational goals and objectives. There are instances that teachers need to share their ideas and energies in order to attain educational goals and objectives. A teacher with full commitment would be passionate in terms of participation.

Commitment is seen in the teacher who devotes more time in contributing to the profession. A committed teacher has no hesitation to express brilliant ideas in the improvement of the school process or system. This kind of teacher also has the aspiration to mentor or coach other teachers when needed.

A committed teacher is continuously learning. A teacher who is committed never stops from learning. This teacher considers learning as an essential part in achieving professional development and growth.

Commitment in work is manifested by a teacher who cares so much for the schoolchildren, who is very responsible in work, who spends additional time and effort in the school, who shares ideas with peers, who contributes to the profession and who is continuously learning.

It is important for a teacher to be committed. As said by the award-winning associate professor at Boise State University Heidi Reeder, “Commitment is the foundation of great accomplishments.”

References:
https://www.theedadvocate.org/5-professional-commitments-you-need-to-make-as-a-teacher/
https://www.teachhub.com/professional-commitment-teaching-profession https://www.awakenthegreatnesswithin.com/35-inspirational-quotes-on-commitment/