Today generation, teachers often stumble challenge in their students. However, how can it figure out or resolve by the teacher? There is a good solution to this dilemma and that is the presence of discipline. It is better to start the classes with a blessed and an enjoyable beginning. Before starting a class discussion, a teacher must first set discipline or else the teacher's task will not be successful.

Given there is no proper discipline, learning will not be attainable. The teacher must remember that the pupils must be set first and must give their full concentration and command before beginning with the class interaction.

The teacher must set the ambiance and attitude or mood of the class. In exploiting this, the teacher must give the specific dos and don'ts in the class. The teacher must settle a good cooperative atmosphere for the pupils to follow. Moreover, the guidelines and classroom rules must be lively presented by the teacher so that the pupils could clearly aware everything.

Accordingly, once pupils already comprehend the requirements in the class, the healthy and proper classroom behaviors of the pupils will be realized. Likewise, setting a discipline in the classroom could help accomplish respect. Respect for a teacher and respect for the learners must inculcate.

Discipline is essential if you want to have an order in the class, then set it well and it will establish an effective classroom management.
