Leadership influences pupils’ achievements in the sense that being a leader, one should establish the proper behavior and attitudes for them to create a harmonious relationship and a well conducive environment. Being a leader, one must show evidence that he/she is capable of leading his/her subordinates in a good and a better society. Through this, student acquires achievements by enactment of different practices.

Values are the most important factors that a leader should have. It is also necessary that a student must gain knowledge and skills for better understanding of his society and community for a well-known relationship to his constituent and subordinates. Leadership influences pupils’ achievements because it is very important for those who experience, leadership and its relation to your subordinates and constituent and so it is very helpful to acquire your task effectively and efficiently. It is indeed an opportunity to learn how to communicate with each other and promote an interpersonal relationship with others. Smooth relationship with every member of the organization is very important because in a leadership training experience and the ability to lead must be gained through collective information and ideas to enhance the skills and ability to do something as a school leader.

The leader and their leadership skills and abilities play an important role in the growth of an organization and one’s community. When we say leadership, it refers to the process of influencing the behavior and attitudes of an individual in a manner that they strive willingly and enthusiastically towards the achievements of a group objective. Leadership motivates the individual to a higher level of performance through their strong human relation. It is a necessary and an important function of management, which helps to maximize efficiency and to achieve organizational goals and objectives. A good leader must increase the emotional intelligence of each member the quality and confidence of a group in a society and of the country.
