HOW TO ENJOY YOUR JOB AS A TEACHER

by:

Sylvia B. Atanacio
Master Teacher II, Orani North Elementary School

They say that teaching is very challenging but it is also fun depends on the person assuming it.

Teachers have to feel that they are amazing. They are very smart, very resourceful and very hardworking. So it is best to display these traits to enjoy the job as a teacher. The life of a teacher is enjoyable if one expresses potentialities.

Teachers need to enjoy learning. Learning is considered lifelong so teachers have to enjoy studying and learning new things. The continuous study and trainings are indeed fulfilling to achieve.

Teachers may enjoy their jobs if they continue to be creative. Their creativity may lead them to be productive and fruitful. The creativity of a teacher is leading to better products and outputs.

Teachers are able to build good relationships with others. Having good bonds with colleagues would be enjoyable and rewarding. It is truly enjoyable if you have harmony with your fellow teachers and co-workers.

Teachers should grab every opportunity. The process of accumulating more experiences for growth and development is such a great experience. Having different opportunities would be enjoyable and exciting.

The life of a teacher is enjoyable and truly satisfying. A job that is well-loved and well-done is delightful.
References:

https://www.wgu.edu/heyteach/article/5-reasons-love-teaching1806.html