A kind of profession we all know, but little do people know what a teacher does in the department.

Basically, a teacher is a person who helps others to acquire knowledge, competence or virtue (en.wikipedia.org). The purpose of a teacher may be taken on by anyone ordinarily. An educator, professor or a school teacher are often being called. Teachers play important roles in the lives of the students in their classrooms. They are best known for the role of educating the students that are placed during their term. Beyond, teachers serve many other roles in the classroom. They set the mood of their learners, building a warm environment, raising students to be good who sometimes won’t even listen and instead look for trouble.

Around the world, private and public teachers serve a crucial impact in each society. A person going to school will be educated with the help of great teachers.

Indeed, the definition is very easy to understand. On the other hand, “Do I really want to be one?” This query is somewhat ambitious to comprehend.

When a teacher enters a class, profound confidence will be seen. Great responsibility will be minded once they are in front of their students. Answering the question “why do you want to teach” has a lot of response coming from a tenured teacher. Sharing this statement may inspire newbies. This may be an interesting fact in developing skills as a teacher.

“I am a teacher … because this is my dream.” , This is a very strong statement. Imagine, from grade school going to high school up to bachelor’s degree, being a teacher is a dream handed. Therefore, willingness and eagerness in any kind of situation will be necessary once they are in the teaching field.
“ I am a teacher … because this is my passion.”, Many people graduated in a different profession. But after exploring those fields in many years, there’s a “calling” wanting to come out. They found love in this career. They found enormous happiness seeing themselves being a teacher. So, having these profound love, lessen the hardship experiencing in this field.

“I am a teacher… because I wanna change the lives of the students.” Nowadays, the reasons why students are not interested in school is due to devastating situations in life. With that, not so good happenings will be seen. Lots of uncertainties they can capture. Alcohol, drugs, and others are offered if the guidance they needed is not handed. To help a child struggling with low self-esteem and problems at home, that is a great goal. Encourage them and help them realize their potential is indeed an extraordinary one.

“I am a teacher …. because future needs me.”, A big word ever mentioned. Indeed a great dedication. A devotion to helping others. A reason to contribute to a community in meaningful manners. In this field of pedagogy, the extension of arms to help society always attaches. Teacher’s role is important so that this future we have, will become educated and be a good person to look forward.

Teachers are in extraordinary position to have a direct impact on their students. They are trying their very best to make students be ready to face challenges around. We have great teachers all over the world. People need them no matter what.

Kudos to all teachers. You must be proud if you are in this position. A noble profession that changes all. They aspire to educate, inspire to be a better one and affect positive change. I am a teacher. I am one. Shout to be one!

Reference: