KNOW YOUR VOCATIONAL SKILLS AND ABILITIES

by:
Felisa V. Franco
Teacher III JC Payumo Jr. Elementary School

Each one of us has distinct skills that need to be enhanced. Furthermore, God gives us innate talents for us to succeed in our chosen field of endeavors. Therefore, begin to develop these given gifts and for you to learn more about these skills and talents, here are the following abilities:

1. Artistic Ability – the ability to draw, paint, sketch or blend colors

2. Clerical Ability – the ability to keep neat, accurate record on cards and in books, sort, check, alphabetize or file reports

3. Speaking Ability – the ability to express ideas clearly and forcefully in argument, discussion or on a speaker’s platform

4. Journalistic Ability – the ability to write stories, reports or articles clearly and interestingly

5. Leadership – the ability to supervise, control, manage, direct or teach other people

6. Manual Dexterity – the ability to work with the hand using small hand tools or to handle small object skillfully

7. Mathematical Ability – the ability to use numbers quickly and accurately in order to compute, figure, analyze and estimate

8. Mechanical Ability – the ability to assemble, repair, operate and maintain machinery or appliances
9. Musical Ability – the ability to sing or to play a musical instrument

10. Physical strength – the ability to do heavy work for long hours, indoors or outdoors

11. Scholastic Ability – the ability to read, study and learn from lectures, demonstration and laboratory experimentation.

12. Sociability – the ability to meet and talk to all types of persons easily

13. Judgment – the ability to analyze situations accurately with common sense

The benefits of matching careers with interests are not limited to employees with the best fit but they also helps to control turnover rates. Employees whose career interests are congruent with their jobs are more likely to be satisfied with work and find intrinsic motivation to stay in their work or career.

References:

https://study.com

https://www.vocationaltraininghq.com