TEACHER: A REFLECTION OF STUDENTS’ SUCCESS

by:

Goeil A. Bernas
Teacher III, Limay National High School

In this world full of crumpled lines and rocky paths, the only way to be on edge is to be equipped with desired knowledge and skills. Knowledge and skills are the true wealth that no one can steal from someone who gained them. You are able to plot your success the way it builds your life’s expectation. Thus, good decisions have been made for the development of progressive economy. Professional also exist around the world and share the common good in technological advancement. Important inventions and discoveries are now co-existence of people’s everyday living. Many of the past and present leaders contribute to the expression of fair and just norms. People that vary from culture, values and traditions are possessed with the good qualities of national understanding to be morally upright. The brain behind these achievements are the teachers the reflection of great learning.

Looking back with the keys on how a person gained essential characteristics to be confident with the loving heart roots on the selfless teaching of teachers. Teachers work hard in making students future professionals and responsible citizens with compassionate hearts. It may be a struggle in the eye of few to teach varied students but for teachers it is an opportunity to build nations of good-hearted citizens. It is neither the money nor the material possession that motivates the teachers to fight for the students’ success it is the students’ embodiment of life-long learning which developed through the teachers’ all time teaching. The learnings that continue to light every struggle for victory fades the doubt of stopping in achieving goals. The teaching that promotes independence to live the world of promises leads every mind to aim for more. The teachers keep the fire
Effective teachers touch the hearts and souls of students to enrich them to have education and career aspiration. Teachers should also learn that educators have a direct influence in enhancing students’ perception about learning. And it is of great importance that teachers possess qualities that support in making the students realize that learning environment is safe for learning.

Key Qualities of Effective Teacher

1. Have formal teacher preparation training.
2. Attend trainings and seminars to hold certification which could be in standard, alternative, or provisional and are certified within the given fields.
3. Have taught for at least three years.
4. Are caring, fair, and respectful.
5. Impose clearly high expectations for themselves and their students.
6. Provide extra time to reflect with instructional.
7. Maximize the use of instructional time through effective classroom management and organization.
8. Improve instruction through varied instructional strategies, activities, and assignments.
9. Give content to students in a creative way that fosters understanding.
10. Monitor students’ learning by utilizing pre and post assessments, providing timely and informative feedback, and reteaching material to students who did not achieve mastery.
11. Execute effectiveness with the full range of students’ abilities, regardless of the academic achievement of the students.

Reference: