TEACHER PEDAGOGICAL DUTY

by:
Irish F. Bacolor
Teacher III, Jose C. Payumo Jr. Memorial High School

Here are some of the teacher’s roles in the lives of the students. Teachers are best known for educating the students that are placed in their care. They set the tone of their classrooms, build a warm environment, mentor and nurture students, to become a role models to their learners. Their task is to prepare the classrooms, build a safe, clean and warm environment. They are responsible for setting conducive environment and encourage the students to maintain it. An educator must have a disciplining plan in order to be implemented in their classroom. This includes things such as creating a syllabus, creating and posting classroom rules and setting up workstations. They may prepare a lesson, do their best to help struggling students, and may continuously strive to improve their teaching to support student’s learning. Also, the needs to display the positive attitude that encourage students to go to school to learn. The teacher’s role in the classroom is to teach knowledge and skills about the lesson. This is done in many ways including lectures, small group activities and hands-on learning activities. The teachers may engage students through group activity to encourage students to participate in whole class discussion. It may be advised to have 60% student’s participation and 40% for the teacher to explain and demonstrate well the lesson. The most common role of a teacher plays in the classroom is to teach knowledge, demonstrate skills that students want to learn. Teachers are given a curriculum guide they must follow to meet DepED guidelines. They must be able to read and interpret DepED curriculum standards. Teacher may plan his/her lesson plan from the curriculum standards, the performance standard and the content standard. From these, the teacher can develop the specific objectives that are attainable, and that are fit to learner’s capability. This curriculum is followed by the teacher throughout the year, all pertinent knowledge is dispensed to the students.

Teachers serve as a role model to her students. The positive and or the negative attitude of the teacher’s may affect the learning performance of their students. Teachers are there not only to teach the children, but also to love and support students learning. Teachers are typically highly respected by the people in the community and therefore become a role model to students and parents. Mentoring is a way a teacher encourages students to strive to be the best they can. This also includes encouraging students to enjoy learning. The teacher may also learn from her students by means of listening from them through classroom discussion and group report. This helps build their confidence and helps them to be successful. Another role played by teachers is as a protector. They may look for signs of trouble in the students. When students’ behaviors change or physical signs of abuse are noticed, teachers are required to look into the problem. Bullying are strictly prohibited inside the classroom. Teachers must follow faculty procedures for the bullied students.

The teacher plays an important role in the classroom when it comes to the environment. If the teacher prepares a warm, happy environment, students are more likely to be happy. They are motivated to go to school every day. Positive reinforcement is used to motivate students to learn. Corporal punishment has been avoided since this causes a negative reaction and is punishable by laws. Teachers are responsible for the social behavior in their classrooms. Classroom rules are exhibit and observed and must follow by them. This behavior is primarily a reflection of the teacher’s actions and the environment she sets. Students discipline must properly imposed and strictly followed by the students to maintain harmonious relationship inside the classroom. Teachers are responsible for communicating with their students and their students’ parents. They may hold teacher-student conferences and parent-teacher conferences to discuss a student's progress and to brainstorm solutions to problems.
Others duty is to interact with different groups of people, including administrators, other teachers, paraprofessionals and parents, each day. Teacher’s duties include communicating, planning, creating, monitoring and assessing. Teachers are expected to exhibit a professional attitude and maintain ethical teacher-student boundaries.

Teachers may perform other tasks - learner, facilitator, assessor, manager and evaluator. The teachers are role model to guide and shape students bright future.

References: