TEACHER’S SERVICE

by:
Alison Faye B. Agustin
Bantan Elementary School

When you are in the service of your fellow beings you are only in the service of God. Service to others is an important characteristic of a teacher. A teacher is willing to bear pupils boredom and comfort those who among there need comfort. There are many ways to serve others. Some of the important service which you can give to your pupils or students will be within the four fundamentals of your school especially your classroom. A teacher can serve in his or her own classroom, home and community. Often the most meaningful service is expressed through simple everyday acts of kindness especially understanding problems and needs of his or her pupils or students. Seek the guidance of those ream high above so the teachers will know who to serve and how to help them meet their needs. As the teachers devote themselves to serve properly the pupils or students, her or his heart will be filled with love and learn that service and sacrifice are ways to overcome selfishness. The teacher will enjoy happiness only from doing service to her or his pupil, students, and others. Her or his capacities will increase and finally the teacher will become instruments of God in blessing the lives of the children.

References:

Strength of Youth
Originally published: 1965
Original language: English
Publisher: The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints
OCLC: 23198861

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/For_the_Strength_of_Youth