THE IMPORTANCE OF LEARNING AND SPEAKING ENGLISH LANGUAGE TODAY

by

Mayeil R. Tiangco
Blessed Regina Protmann Catholic School

Whether we like it or not, English had become one of the most important languages we enjoy in this world. Even in less popular countries, it became something as a vital requirement to communicate better with others. Surely, the language of English is an instrument in many business ventures, politics, tourisms, educations and everyday lives, among others. Unfortunately, there are people who still find it hard to learn and understand this particular language. This is despite the availability of English as a global language in the industry of music, TV programs and over the Internet. However, there are now existing websites online made in English and this is an imperative opportunity for these people to consider it as their second language.

They say that one of the most important aspects when using this kind of language is about politics. One reason is that in order for a nation to communicate to the world, it is important to learn this native language. This is a crucial step in dealing with all other English-speaking nations as part of the advancing economy worldwide. As expected, many political and world leaders already learned English to communicate and even some of them interpreters for them to understand the conversation.

Surely, English is a global language that prevented the negative manners of not understanding the communication and so political leaders had opted to learn the right way. On the other hand, there are still nations or countries that imposed certain rules that visitors must learn their own language as well.

Another important factor on why millions people choose to speak this type of language is to deal with the business world for international market. It is true that more and more companies are trying to expand the ventures overseas, especially those American firms that now set up their businesses in other countries like the Philippines, China, Singapore, UK, and Australia as well as in the Middle East, among others.

These companies believe that they need to break the language barrier and so they want their people to learn on how to speak English properly, while on the business world. Definitely, this kind of advantage will make it easier to complete transactions, convince potential buyers, find great partners and in handling the employees appropriately. It is likewise a good way to communicate with different business owners because of having an effective native tongue.

Tourism is another important factor where English becomes a vital consideration, especially for thousands of tourists who love visiting different countries for a grand vacation. These people knew that most of the businesses in these countries are using a global language like English because they need this to benefit from the visiting tourists. They must communicate to them in convincing them to spend their money to purchase their offered items, foods and souvenirs while staying in their places.

Keep in mind that not being able to interact with a native English speaker can become a hindrance to learn this important language. Today, there are different things that we can do to help many of us on how to interact with native English speakers and this can improve our confidence greatly. It is important to accept the fact that proper interaction is a powerful tool to live in this world without any trouble.

With the advent of the Internet, it is now easier to watch different free English movies and this is a good idea to consider. As we understand the slang words we hear, we show more interest in learning to speak like real Americans because it is difficult to speak their language than by just writing it. Think that learning colloquialism means hearing the words and phrases in real context.