WHY READING IS SO IMPORTANT?

by:
Lanie D. Lalic
Pagalanggang National High School

Reading is important to brain’s development. It has various advantages that our body will benefits. It improves the intelligence and comprehension of the reader. People says “Laughter is the best medicine”, but reading can also be a medicine to carry out our stress. It is well-known that the ability to maintain a conversation on any topic and to show your erudition provides you with much higher chances that people would like you eventually. Reasons why reading is important.

1. Expose Yourself to New Things

Reading helps us to see those we cannot see well known tourist spots, culture of other people, their dresses, way of living, customs traditions and the like. We expose ourselves to the new things because of reading. It help us to explore unknown facts and various things which we cannot encounter. Learning new things add new knowledge and it will lead to meaningful learning.

2. Self - Improvement

Reading helps you to understand the world and be a better person as before. It improves not only the brain but also the whole person itself. There are things we caught our interest through reading we can answer all the questions in our mind and it will satisfy the vague queries.

3. Preparation to Action
Preparation before the action is vital. Being prepared shows alertness, through reading we prepared ourselves to know the things that was unclear. The more we read, the more we understand things. The more we understand the more we take an action that is well planned. There are times we seek the help of other people or the expert regarding our questions but the problem is their availability, so reading takes place. It makes you become prepared before getting into it.

4. Gain Experience from Other People

Experience is the best teacher, through reading we can learn things with the help of experiences of other people. It can hasten your success towards a goal, as you don’t need to repeat the same mistake while focusing on the right path in achieving one thing. Repeating mistakes done by the people in the past is not useful so learning from it is more meaningful.

5. Tools of Communicating

Communication is important because we transfer ideas and information that may help other people. When we communicate we understand more and through reading we communicate by means of it. It is one of the most important tools we use every day to connect with each other. Reading connects you with the world.

6. Boost Imagination and Creativity

Reading broaden our horizon, it makes our mind be creative on things that we have read. Through reading things are possible, we explore different angle of the things. Books are beyond imagination. It empowers our minds to open new possibilities, new experiences and new opportunities.
References:

https://www.inspirationboost.com/8-reasons-why-reading-is-so-important